IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

New for this season we will be using Remind.com to send important league and team updates, practice and game reminders, cancellations and other important reminders for All Lonsdale Youth Ball League Teams. It is highly recommended, but not mandatory, that all parents register their cell phone to receive these important updates, as this will be the primary source of communication in season for practice and game updates.

To Register with Remind, please see the following form for instructions. Registration is fast and safe!

Once you have joined "Lonsdale Youth Ball Leagues," we will assign you to your player's specific team so that your head coach will have the ability to send the entire team important messages directly to your text message inbox. Team assignments will not be posted until registration closes and the teams have been set. Note that your contact information will not be shared or visible to anyone except Lonsdale Youth Ball Administrators, and only your head coach will have the ability to send important messages or reminders. If you would like the messages sent to multiple phones (i.e. Mom and Dad,) please register both cell phone numbers on Remind.

IMPORTANT: If you have multiple players, you only need to sign up with Remind ONE time, you will be assigned to multiple coaches and will receive messages from only the coach of each players team or from Lonsdale Youth Ball Leagues.

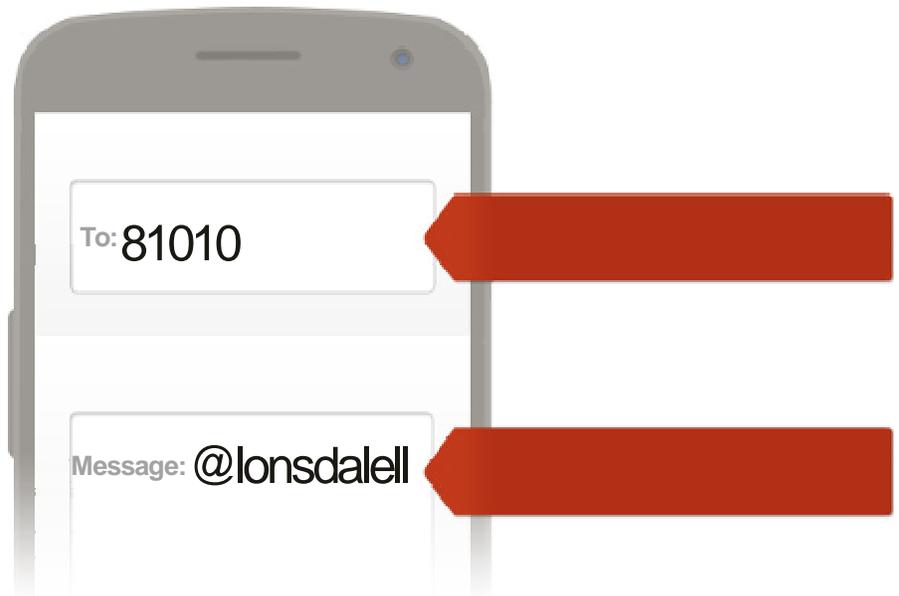

Thanks for joining!
